

Gary G. DiFatta, D.C.

Objective

A highly motivated Chiropractor seeking full time employment.

Work experience

April 1993 – 2015 Gary G. DiFatta, D.C Lindenhurst, New York

Chiropractor

- Self-employed Chiropractor providing treatment using spinal manipulation, various modalities, and diverse techniques. Designed individual treatment plans for each patient, provided personal care, and utilized effective communication to optimize care for each patient.

July 1992 – February 1993 East Meadow, New York

Chiropractor

- Subleased office space in order to provide Chiropractic care and treatment

August 1991 – June 1992 Externship Program, Miramar, Florida

Chiropractic Extern

- Worked with Donald Woeltjen, D. C., FCA President, in order to gain knowledge and experience of the Chiropractic profession and work towards Florida licensure

Education

June 1991 Life Chiropractic College Marietta, Georgia

Doctor of Chiropractic

December 1996 Regents College Albany, New York

Bachelor of Science

Certifications

July 2000 – New York Chiropractic College
Fitness, Strength, and Performance Program

September 1991 – National College of Chiropractic
Physiological Therapeutics

1991 – National Board of Chiropractic Examiners Certificate number: 43720

January 1990 – Life Chiropractic College
Certified Thermography Technician

Continuing education

April 2012 – New York Chiropractic College
Spinal Intraoperative Neuromonitoring
Module 1 – Introduction to IONM
12 Hours

March 2010 – University of Bridgeport, Connecticut
Dynamic Analysis Treatment and Rehabilitation of Movement Related Dysfunctions

February 1999 – New York Chiropractic College
Electro diagnostic Testing

June 1997 – The National College of Chiropractic
Manipulation Under Anesthesia

Chiropractic techniques

Diversified, Thompson Drop Technique, Flexion/Distractor, Activator, SOT, Myofascial Release Technique